Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday
Holy Eucharist Rite II
January 20, 2019, 9:15am

St. Paul’s Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street, New York City
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was born on January 15, 1929. A third-generation preacher, he combined his deep faith with a passionate commitment to social justice. King spearheaded non-violent mass demonstrations against racism, and his campaigns were instrumental to the passage of the Civil Rights Acts of 1964, 1965, and 1968. He faced constant and oftentimes violent opposition, being jailed 30 times and eventually assassinated. Dr. King’s “I Have a Dream” speech delivered at the 1963 March on Washington, D.C. remains a pinnacle of inspirational rhetoric. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, celebrated on the third Monday of January each year, became a federal holiday in 1983 and, along with September 11, is recognized as a national day of service.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

adapted from Joel 2

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant I will pour out my spirit on all flesh, says the Lord:
People Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
Celebrant Your elders shall dream dreams:
People Those who are young shall see visions.
Celebrant Even on the voiceless and the outcast:
People In those days, I will pour out my spirit.
Opening Hymn

Lift every voice and sing, Till earth and heaven ring, Ring with the harmonies of liberty. Let our rejoicing rise High as the listening skies, Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;

Sing a song full of the hope that the present has Words: James Weldon Johnson (1871-1938); Music: J. Rosamond Johnson (1873-1954)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, by the hand of Moses your servant you led your people out of slavery, and made them free at last: Grant that your Church, following the example of your prophet Martin Luther King, Jr., may resist oppression in the name of your love, and may secure for all your children the blessed liberty of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Letter to the Ephesians.

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.
Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon: Jesus said, "I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)

The Prayers of the People

Reader As we pray for our nation, our world, and the Church, let the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. inspire our hearts:

“I have a dream that one day ‘every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and mountain shall be made low; and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.’”

This is our hope.

Silence

Lord Jesus, you lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do; you made us your Church. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people who love and serve you.

People Help us to walk in your way.

Reader You cared for the world around you: the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.

People Help us to protect the world you gave us.
Reader You want us to live happy and good lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to make wise decisions for our nation, our state, and our city.

People Help us to live together in unity.

Reader You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools, colleges, and universities; and bless everyone, old and young, with good work and fair wages.

People Help us to do our work well.

Reader You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Hold in your embrace all who are the victims of injustice and discrimination. Give your grace to those who work for reconciliation and righteousness.

People Help us to be instruments of your peace.

Reader When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there with us. Bless our parish family, that we may live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship. Make us eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do, in our neighborhoods and in our world.

People Help us to be your heart and voice, hands and feet.

Celebrant God of grace and glory, you call your Church to shine out in the world. Bless and strengthen us so that we might be people of compassion, courage, and truth, always seeking to bring the good news of Christ to all those we meet and everything we do.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution BCP p. 393/360

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

---

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1567?)
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: God of might and mercy, Creator of the universe, your goodness calls forth every praise we can speak. You made all things: the stars that spread across the sky; this abundant earth we call home; waters and weather, creatures great and small.

You created human beings from the first elements. You made us able to think, to move, to love, and to remember. You charged us with the care of your world. But we turned against you and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Again and again, you called us to return. When it was time, you sent your only Son to be born of your servant, Mary; in Jesus, you fulfilled your Law and opened for us the way of freedom and peace.

For all of this, we praise you, together with the heavenly choir of angels, apostles, saints, and the faithful from every generation. With them, and with your children all around the world, we sing of your goodness and glory:

Sanctus

Sanctus continues on the next page.
Celebrant And so, Creator, we who have been redeemed by Jesus, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Together, we remember all Jesus has done to redeem us, and we offer you this sacrifice of thanksgiving.

All We celebrate his death and resurrection,
As we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Almighty God of our ancestors; God and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: open our eyes to see your hand in the world around us.

Help us to come to this table for strength, and not merely for comfort; for renewal and not merely pardon. Through your grace, may the food and drink we receive together make us one body and one spirit in Jesus, focused and inspired to serve the world in his Name.

Accept our prayers and our praise, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship, throughout all generations.

All AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy Name,
   thy kingdom come,
   thy will be done,
   on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

1. Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees);
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees);

1. When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh, Lord, have mercy on me (on me).
2. Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees); Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees). When I
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Christ be manifest to you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be with you always.
All Amen.

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Please take this bulletin home with you.

Flowers

The flowers today are given in loving memory of Walter T. Oerlemans by his family. He was a beloved husband, father, Opa, and dear friend. It has been 2 years since his passing and not a day goes by that he isn’t terribly missed. We remember his voice, his stories, his strong yet gentle handshake, and most of all we remember the kindness that came from deep inside his heart.

Core Values
In January we focus on the Core Value of Faith

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee.
- All recommendations must be received in writing no later than February 3, 2019. The recommendations must be submitted with biographical information and should identify the person or persons making the recommendations. For recommendations submitted by letter, please send to the Parish Nominating Committee c/o Mike Hogan, 120 Broadway, New York, NY 10271 or by email sent to mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Suggested candidates must be Episcopalians and bring specific skills or knowledge to the parish.
- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020. The final slate of candidates will be identified by April 5, 2019.
- During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.
- Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul's Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced on the website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

COMING SOON

Youth Film Festival Kick-Off
February 2 (registrants only)
Keep It Reel: Teens Facing Race Through Film is a youth film project exploring the topic of race through the medium of film for the 30th anniversary of Spike Lee's Do the Right Thing. We invite high school students to share their voices, offer the downtown community an original point of view of life and race in New York City, and learn about filmmaking. Information: Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Frederick Douglass Book Talk
7-9pm, Tuesday, February 5, St. Paul's Chapel

Scene & Unseen: Facing Race Through Film
February 8-9, St. Paul's Chapel
This conference, featuring screenings of Do the Right Thing and Blindsbottting, explores how cinema can reveal structural racism, foster dialogue, and ignite transformation towards healing and reconciliation. These conversations in our faith communities aren't optional; they are the gospel. The evening of February 8 features a film screening and panel discussion on Spike Lee's Do the Right Thing that is free and open to all. Trinity parishioners and staff are eligible for an exclusive discount to the February 9 conference; contact christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org for the promo code. Learn more and register for the full conference at trinitywallstreet.org/unseen2019.

Young Adults Dinner and Conversation
6:30pm, Tuesday, February 12, Parish Center
Young Adults (20s and 30s) are invited to dinner and conversation with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones about “What does love require of me?” Please bring $5 to contribute to dinner. RSVP to Young_Adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are beginning to remove the top lancet of the west chancel window; flooring in the nave is being trenched; and conduit is being installed in the attic. Demolition is beginning on the floor outside the Chapel of All Saints. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Giving Campaign Continues
There’s still time to make your 2019 stewardship pledge to Trinity. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Mother Beth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

Congregational Voice
“I can do all this through him who gives me strength” (Philippians 4:13 NIV). This verse reminds me not to rely on my own strength. Much more can be accomplished when I recognize the source of my strength. —La-Kisha Webb

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today’s Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
