SUNDAY OF THE PRESENTATION OF OUR LORD: CANDLEMAS

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

FEBRUARY 3, 2019, 9:00AM
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

During the four weeks of Advent we waited with eager expectation to receive the mystery of the Incarnation at Christmastide. At Christmas we celebrated with joy the birth of our Savior who condescended to become one of us, to share our life, and redeem us. The season of joyful celebration continued through the Sundays after Christmas, the Baptism of Our Lord and into the Sundays after Epiphany. That cycle of celebration of the birth of our Savior finds its conclusion today in the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Temple.

This feast, which always falls on February 2, and which we observe today, comes 40 days after Christmas Day. Its origins, like those of all our ancient feasts, lie in the customs and traditions of a patriarchal culture. Patriarchy’s discomfort with the mystique of women and the power of childbirth insisted on the “purification” of women after their “confinement.” This purification occurred 40 days after the birth of the child, and by this rite new mothers were once again rendered acceptable in society. So it was that for many centuries the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary on February 2 was celebrated as a feast of our Lord’s mother, a so-called Marian feast.

The careful reflection of the Liturgical Movement found this celebration anachronistic and demeaning of women, and further, that it missed the Gospel meaning of the event in the life of the Christchild. Consequently, the Second Vatican Council gave the feast the name that it has today, refocusing the celebration on Christ as the fulfillment of God’s promises to Israel and to all the nations. The young child in whom God’s promise is fulfilled, and the two witnesses, the faithful old man Simeon and the holy woman Anna, are thus placed at the center of the celebration.

This redefinition of the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary does not diminish the role of our Lord’s Mother in the economy of our salvation. She is Mater Ecclesiae—Mother of the Church—and it is as Mother of the Church that she with her husband Joseph present the Christchild in the Temple, for our salvation and to the glory of God.

Candlemas and the Blessing of Candles

The earliest reference to Candlemas is from 4th-century Jerusalem, when Egeria, the Spanish nun, attended the celebration and described it in the Peregrinatio Etheriae, the account of her pilgrimage. By the middle of the 5th century the custom of observing the festival with the blessing of candles and the proclamation of the Gospel with lighted candles had been introduced. The name Candlemas developed from this custom. The offering of candles reflects our self-offering in the same way as Christ is presented in the Temple to serve the purposes of God. The conclusion of the Gospel with the Song of Simeon calls to mind the liberating power of the Light of Christ breaking into the world. The liturgy of the Presentation is a liturgy of Light, Christ the Light of the World.

2 For us baptized, for us he bore his holy 3 For us he prayed; for us he taught; for us his

1 thought and fancy, that God, the Son of
2 fast and hungered sore; for us temptations
3 daily works he wrought; by words and signs and

1 God, should take our mortal form for mortals’ sake.
2 sharp he knew; for us the tempter overthrew.
3 actions, thus still seeking not himself, but us.

Introduction
CW p. 316

Celebrant Dear People of God: forty days ago we celebrated the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. Now we recall the day on which he was presented in the Temple, where he was offered to God Almighty and shown to the people.

In their old age, Simeon and Anna recognized the young child as the Savior sent by God to judge and redeem the world. Today we in our turn acknowledge Christ as the Light of the world and the Lord of our lives. We turn to him for the forgiveness of our sins and are made worthy by him to present our worship and adoration in the offering of candles.

In this Eucharist, we celebrate both the joy of Christ’s coming and the redemptive grace of Christ’s searching judgement, looking back to the day of his birth and looking forward to the coming days of his passion.
Festival Responsory

Celebrant Open for us the gates of righteousness:
People We will enter them and offer thanks to God.

Celebrant “This is the gate of the Holy One,
those who are righteous may enter.”
People We will give thanks to you, O God,
for you have become our salvation.

Celebrant The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
People This is God's doing,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Celebrant On this day the Holy One has acted:
People We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Blessing the Candles

Celebrant May the light and peace of Christ be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Blessed are you forever, O Lord our God, radiant source of everlasting light: pour into the hearts of your faithful people the brilliance of your eternal splendor that we, lighting up this temple to your glory with these candles, may have the darkness of our souls dispelled, and so be counted worthy to stand before you in that eternal temple where you live and reign, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant As Mary, your faithful servant and the Holy Mother of our Lord, heard your word and obeyed it, so may we hear and obey you, and as your Christ is the Light of the world, so may the light of Christ shine in and through us.

People Kindle in us the fire of your love that we may be radiant witnesses
of the Light of Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.
1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

4. You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

5. For you are the Holy One, you are the Lord, you are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Malachi.

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 84:1-7, 12

Reader Let us read from Psalm 84 in unison.

All How dear to me is your dwelling, O God of hosts! *
       my soul has a desire and longing for your courts;
       my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young, *
       by the side of your altars, O God of hosts,
       my Ruler and my God.

Happy are they who dwell in your house; *
       they will always be praising you.

Happy are the people whose strength is in you; *
       whose hearts are set on the pilgrims’ way.

Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.

They will climb from height to height; *
       the God of gods will be revealed in Zion.

O God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
       hearken, O God of Jacob.

O God of hosts, *
       happy are they who put their trust in you!

The Second Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death.
For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham.
Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2:22-40

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord”), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, “Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.” And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, “This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray that the light of Christ may be seen in us and in the life of the Church.

Jesus, Lord of the Church, you have called us into the family of those who are the children of God. May our love for our brothers and sisters be strengthened by your grace. Use us to bring your compassion and justice to all who are exploited, forgotten, or abused.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Reader You have called us to be a temple where the Holy Spirit can dwell. Inspire us with your vision and empower us to do your will, so that our lives will reflect your holiness. Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Reader You have called us to be a light to the world, so that those in darkness come to you. May our lives shine to witness the saving grace you have given for all. Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Reader You have called us to be members of your body, so that when one suffers, all suffer together. Let the grace of your comfort and healing power bring hope to those in distress.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Reader You have called us to be the salt of the earth. Give us grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Reader You have called us to join you as partners in this life and share the joy of eternity with you. We remember all who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see. Prepare us for the wedding feast, where we will be united with you for ever.

Make us shine with the Light of Christ.

People Lead us and guide us, O Lord.

Celebrant Jesus, Lord of the Church, hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you with joy for ever.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Jesus Christ, the Light of the world has dawned upon us with forgiveness and healing for all. Let us come to Christ, in sorrow for our sins, seeking renewal and salvation.

People O God of grace and mercy, you fill the earth with your glory: holy is your name. In our sinfulness we cry to you: turn us from all that draws us away from you, take our guilt away, cleanse our lips to speak your word, empower our hands to serve you always, and renew in us the love and light of Christ.

Amen.

Celebrant May the God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, restore and strengthen you by the Holy Spirit, and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

EOV p. 63, adapted/CW p. 270

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full,
full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Bless’d is the one who comes...

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed _____, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,

we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;

and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.

And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do,

to love and serve you

as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,

be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Jesus Christ, the Onlybegotten and Beloved of God, born of Mary, fill you with grace to walk in the light of Christ, trusting Christ’s promises and obeying Christ’s will. And the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.
1 God the Omnipotent! King, who ordainest
2 God the Allprovident! earth by thy chastening

1 thunder thy clarion, the lightning thy sword;
yet shall to freedom and truth be restored;
2 show forth thy pity on high where thou reignest;
through the thick darkness thy kingdom is hastening:

1 give to us peace in our time, O Lord.
thou wilt give peace in thy time, O Lord.

A Litany of Atlanta 2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories is a developing work that explores the struggle of Africans in America to achieve the “American Dream” and how the quest for achievement has been systematically sabotaged by a white power structure and replaced by a false narrative that prevails today. Conceived by parishioner R.A. Foy, the work is based on a narrative and themes poetically captured by W.E.B. Du Bois in A Litany of Atlanta, J. Chester Johnson’s “Litany of Offense and Apology” for the national Day of Repentance (October 4, 2008, the Episcopal Church’s apology for its participation in the transatlantic slave trade), and the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones’ thoughts, words, and encouragement. Light refreshments. Information: Toni Foy at rafoy@hotmail.com.

Core Values
In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Facilitated by art therapist Jessica E. Heller, ATR-BC, LCAT, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Sponsored by Pastoral Care. Free. Space is limited; registration is required at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Attendance at all five sessions is strongly encouraged. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: The removal of the east window is complete. Mechanical work is continuing. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Giving Campaign Continues
There’s still time to make your 2019 stewardship pledge to Trinity. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Mother Beth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members
The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

• Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee.

• All recommendations must be received in writing no later than February 3, 2019. The recommendations must be submitted with biographical information and should identify the person or persons making the recommendations. For recommendations submitted by letter, please send to the Parish Nominating Committee c/o Mike Hogan, 120 Broadway, New York, NY 10271 or by email sent to mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Suggested candidates must be Episcopalian and bring specific skills or knowledge to the parish.

• The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020. The final slate of candidates will be identified by April 5, 2019.

• During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul’s Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.

• Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul’s Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced on the website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.
ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Most Rev. Martin Blaise Nyaboho and the Anglican Church of Burundi.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today’s Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals. Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
