SUNDAY OF THE PRESENTATION OF OUR LORD: CANDLEMAS
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY
FEBRUARY 3, 2019, 9:15AM

ST. PAUL’S CHAPEL
BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

During the four weeks of Advent we waited with eager expectation to receive the mystery of the Incarnation at Christmastide. At Christmas we celebrated with joy the birth of our Savior who condescended to become one of us, to share our life, and redeem us. The season of joyful celebration continued through the Sundays after Christmas, the Baptism of Our Lord and into the Sundays after Epiphany. That cycle of celebration of the birth of our Savior finds its conclusion today in the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Temple.

This feast, which always falls on February 2, and which we observe today, comes 40 days after Christmas Day. Its origins, like those of all our ancient feasts, lie in the customs and traditions of a patriarchal culture. Patriarchy’s discomfort with the mystique of women and the power of childbirth insisted on the “purification” of women after their “confinement.” This purification occurred 40 days after the birth of the child, and by this rite new mothers were once again rendered acceptable in society. So it was that for many centuries the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary on February 2 was celebrated as a feast of our Lord’s mother, a so-called Marian feast.

The careful reflection of the Liturgical Movement found this celebration anachronistic and demeaning of women, and further, that it missed the Gospel meaning of the event in the life of the Christchild. Consequently, the Second Vatican Council gave the feast the name that it has today, refocusing the celebration on Christ as the fulfillment of God’s promises to Israel and to all the nations. The young child in whom God’s promise is fulfilled, and the two witnesses, the faithful old man Simeon and the holy woman Anna, are thus placed at the center of the celebration.

This redefinition of the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary does not diminish the role of our Lord’s Mother in the economy of our salvation. She is Mater Ecclesiae—Mother of the Church—and it is as Mother of the Church that she with her husband Joseph present the Christchild in the Temple, for our salvation and to the glory of God.

The earliest reference to Candlemas is from 4th-century Jerusalem, when Egeria, the Spanish nun, attended the celebration and described it in the Peregrinatio Ethereiae, the account of her pilgrimage. By the middle of the 5th century the custom of observing the festival with the blessing of candles and the proclamation of the Gospel with lighted candles had been introduced. The name Candlemas developed from this custom.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Arise, shine, for your light has come!
People And the glory of God has dawned upon us.

Opening Hymn

Hymnal 8, vv. 1-2

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.
Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm Alec Wyton (1921-2007)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant

God be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Read

A Reading from the Book of Malachi.

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, and never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray that the Light of Christ may be seen in the life of the Church.

Silence

Lord Jesus, you lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do; you made us your Church. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people who love and serve you.

People Help us to walk in your way.

Reader You cared for the world around you: the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.

People Help us to protect the world you gave us.

Reader You want us to live happy and good lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to make wise decisions for our nation, our state, and our city.

People Help us to live together in unity.
You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools, colleges, and universities; and bless everyone, old and young, with good work and fair wages.

Help us to do our work well.

You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Hold in your embrace all who are the victims of injustice and discrimination. Give your grace to those who work for justice, reconciliation, and peace.

Help us to be instruments of your peace.

When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there with us. Bless our parish family, that we may live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship. Make us eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do, in our neighborhoods and in our world.

Help us to be your heart and voice, hands and feet.

God of grace and glory, you call your Church to shine out in the world. Bless and strengthen us so that we might be people of compassion, courage, and truth, always seeking to bring the good news of Christ to all those we meet and everything we do.

Amen.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People      We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People      It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  God of might and mercy, Creator of the universe, your goodness calls forth every praise we can speak. You made all things: the stars that spread across the sky; this abundant earth we call home; waters and weather, creatures great and small.

You created human beings from the first elements. You made us able to think, to move, to love, and to remember. You charged us with the care of your world. But we turned against you and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Again and again, you called us to return. When it was time, you sent your only Son to be born of your servant, Mary; in Jesus, you fulfilled your Law and opened for us the way of freedom and peace.

For all of this, we praise you, together with the heavenly choir of angels, apostles, saints, and the faithful from every generation. With them, and with your children all around the world, we sing of your goodness and glory:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymn continues on the next page.
Celebrant And so, Creator, we who have been redeemed by Jesus, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Together, we remember all Jesus has done to redeem us, and we offer you this sacrifice of thanksgiving.

All We celebrate his death and resurrection,
As we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Almighty God of our ancestors; God and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: open our eyes to see your hand in the world around us.

Help us to come to this table for strength, and not merely for comfort; for renewal and not merely pardon. Through your grace, may the food and drink we receive together make us one body and one spirit in Jesus, focused and inspired to serve the world in his Name.

Accept our prayers and our praise, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship, throughout all generations.

All AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

Celebrant The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.
Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.
It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.
Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.
If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.
If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Christ be manifest to you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be with you always.

All Amen.
1. Goin’ to lay down my burdens,
2. Goin’ to put on my long white robe,

Down by the riverside, Down by the riverside,

Down by the riverside, 1. Goin’ to lay down my burdens,
2. Goin’ to put on my long white robe,

Down by the riverside, To study war no more,

I ain’t goin’ study war no more, Ain’t goin’
Deacon  Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

A Litany of Atlanta
2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories is a developing work that explores the struggle of Africans in America to achieve the “American Dream” and how the quest for achievement has been systematically sabotaged by a white power structure and replaced by a false narrative that prevails today. Conceived by parishioner R.A. Foy, the work is based on a narrative and themes poetically captured by W.E.B. Du Bois in A Litany of Atlanta, J. Chester Johnson’s “Litany of Offense and Apology” for the national Day of Repentance (October 4, 2008, the Episcopal Church’s apology for its participation in the transatlantic slave trade), and the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones’ thoughts, words, and encouragement. Light refreshments. Information: Toni Foy at rafoy@hotmail.com.

Core Values
In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Living with Loss for Teens
4-5:30pm, Saturdays, March 2-30, Parish Center
This 5-part series provides a safe space for teens ages 13-17 to use creative expression and share with their peers as they learn to cope with the loss of loved ones. Facilitated by art therapist Jessica E. Heller, ATR-BC, LCAT, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Sponsored by Pastoral Care. Free. Space is limited; registration is required at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Attendance at all five sessions is strongly encouraged. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: The removal of the east window is complete. Mechanical work is continuing. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Giving Campaign Continues
There’s still time to make your 2019 stewardship pledge to Trinity. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Mother Beth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today's Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
