FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY
February 10, 2019, 9:00am

TRINITY CHURCH
THE CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS
BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

“Epiphany” is a word of Greek origin and refers to an appearance, a displaying, a showing forth, a making clear or public or obvious. On this day, Christians celebrate the making known of Jesus Christ to the world. Several events in the Gospels record how Jesus was made known publicly, how he was shown or presented to the people: his birth, the coming of the Magi, his Baptism, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana.

On the following Sundays, called Sundays after the Epiphany, our attention will be on Jesus' public preaching of the kingdom he comes to inaugurate. On the Last Sunday after Epiphany, March 3, 2019, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, we will read the account of the Transfiguration, the climax of the first phase of our Lord's public ministry.

Celebrant Arise, shine, and give God glory.

People Our light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon us.
Opening Hymn

Hymnal 362, vv. 1-3

Words: Reginald Heber (1783-1826), alt.; Music: Nicaea, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Glory to God in the Highest

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God’s people on earth. 2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. 3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; 5. you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. 6. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, 7. you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
Let us read Psalm 138 in unison.

I will give thanks to you, O God, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.

I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;

For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.

When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.

All the rulers of the earth will praise you, O God, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.

They will sing of the ways of God, *
that great is the glory of God.

Although on high, God cares for the lowly * and perceives the haughty from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.

You will make good your purpose for me; *
O God, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Thanks be to God.
The Holy Gospel

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray that the light of Christ may be seen in the life of the Church.

You have called us into the family of those who are the children of God. May our love for our sisters and brothers in Christ be strengthened by your grace.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a temple where the Holy Spirit can dwell. Give us all clean hands and pure hearts so that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people, our lives will reflect your holiness.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.
Reader You have called us to be a light to the world, so that those in darkness may come to you. Give us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. May our lives shine as a witness to the saving grace you have given for all.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a city planted on a hill, witnesses to the humanity we share with all people. Guide the leaders of all the nations, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, to make wise decisions for the welfare of people everywhere.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be members of your body, so that when one suffers, all suffer together. We ask for your comfort and healing power to bring hope to those in distress.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader We pray for all who have died. Receive them into the bliss of eternal life with you and prepare us to feast at the table in your presence, where we will be united with you for ever.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Bring us to your kingdom of light and peace. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we hide in the darkness of our arrogance and indifference; illuminate the darkness in our hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we refuse to see the signs of your presence all around us;
open our eyes to your saving love.

Christ, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we are slow to respond to your call to follow and serve you; draw us ever more closely to you and your light.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The organist plays an improvisation while the ushers collect the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from Mass for a Soulful People, Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948)
Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed ______, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
The Blessing

Celebrant

May Christ, the Onlybegotten and Anointed One, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world: And the blessing of God almighty, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit be among you, and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Closing Hymn

Words: Thomas Oliver (1725-1799), alt.
Music: Leoni, Hebrew melody; harm. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1875, alt.

Core Values
In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Living with Loss for Teens
4-5:30pm, Saturdays, March 2-30, Parish Center
This 5-part series provides a safe space for teens ages 13-17 to use creative expression and share with their peers as they learn to cope with the loss of loved ones. Facilitated by art therapist Jessica E. Heller, ATR-BC, LCAT, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Sponsored by Pastoral Care. Free. Space is limited; registration is required at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Attendance at all five sessions is strongly encouraged. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing demolition, removing windows, running conduit, and pouring concrete at the trench location. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints

Congregational Council Nominations
The Congregational Nominating & Leadership Development Committee is pleased to place on the ballot the persons listed below for election to five positions on the Congregational Council. Candidates for the 2019-2022 Congregational Council are:

Karla Chee-a-tow, Alistair Cree, Prisca Doh, Martha Graham, and Alan Yu.

Furthermore, we are pleased to present the names of nominees to serve as delegates to the 2018 Diocesan Convention. Nominees for delegates to Diocesan Convention: Scott Evenbeck, Chelsea-Lyn Rudder, and Susan Ward.

Voting will take place at all four services on March 3, 2019. The results will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Congregation for the election of Congregational Council members and delegates to the Diocesan Convention that afternoon in St. Paul’s Chapel.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristen Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
“My soul finds rest in God alone, my salvation comes from him” (Psalm 62:1). This aligns with my core understanding of spirituality and God’s limitless love. —Greer Phillips
Nominees to the 2019–2022 Congregational Council

Karla Chee-a-tow
Karla’s career has centered around the performing arts. She began working in marketing for the Royal Shakespeare Company, led by artistic director Adrian Noble and principal associate director Michael Attenborough, on world-renowned plays including Macbeth, As You Like It, and A Midsummer Night’s Dream.

She came to New York City and worked for the Eliran Murphy Group representing Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, such as Roundabout Theatre’s Cabaret, as well as places of historical reference including the Mashantucket Pequot Museum. She was formerly director of Lifestyle Marketing at V2 Records, and now works with various musicians and artists including the multimedia artist Maya Milenovic Workman, double bass jazz legend Reggie Workman, and producer Nicolas Cabat of Blue Lines Records (Paris, France). More recently she was responsible for musician Jann Klose’s signing to Gallo Records in South Africa, produced the Maya Milenovic play Dos Worlds in association with Trinity Church Wall Street, and devised and implemented the Cultural Outreach campaign for Dreamscape Theatre’s WW1 theatrical production In Fields Where They Lay. She is the U.S. representative for recording label and studio Clouds Hill (Hamburg, Germany) and is currently working with Musée de la Castre (Cannes, France) and GCA Entertainment (Taiwan) on international music projects.

Karla has a bachelor’s degree (Hons) in Arts Management & Performing Arts from De Montfort University (UK), a master’s in Music Business from New York University, and a master’s in Law with a specialty in Intellectual Property from Champlain College (USA). She attended the British Record Industry Trust (BRIT) School for Performing Arts and Technology (UK) and is a Windsor Fellowship alumna (UK). She is a member of Trinity Church Wall Street’s Congregational Arts committee and Strategic Task Force, and a volunteer youth leader.

Outside of life at Trinity, Alistair is a product manager at a financial technology firm, where he works to apply artificial intelligence to make financial markets safer and more efficient. Born in Scotland, Alistair grew up in Portsmouth, UK, and studied physics at Cambridge University. He is an avid reader, and also enjoys cooking and board games.

Alistair Cree
Alistair began attending Trinity Church in 2014, after moving to New York from London. Since then, he has become an active member of the congregation, participating regularly in the “Gospel, Times, Journal and You” group and with the Young Adults groups both at Trinity and in the diocese. Alistair has also volunteered with Trinity in various capacities, including Kianga House last year and the annual Interfaith Thanksgiving dinner. Alistair believes in making life at Trinity about spiritual formation—for ourselves, our neighborhood, and through our local, national, and global missions. He is excited for the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council to discover ways to contribute to our shared vision and to seek opportunities to build capacity for holy service.

Prisca Doh
Prisca has been attending Trinity since 2010. She is currently serving as a Morning Prayer officiant, Sunday School teacher, usher, member of the Bible study group, and Trinity Cares. She also joined the mission trips in Burundi and New Orleans, and the exploratory trip to Haiti. She attends the 9:15am and 11:15am services.

Martha Graham
Martha has been attending Trinity for the past eight years and was formally received into the Episcopal Church on Pentecost in 2014.

Her involvement in the parish takes several forms. First and foremost, she treasures participating in worship as a member of the congregation, and, occasionally, as a reader. She’s also a member of New Beginnings, and has gone on retreats and pilgrimages (to Iona and Canterbury, and soon to the Holy Land). She has also worked on mission and service projects (in Haiti in 2012, Navajoland in 2017, and with Hour Children in New York City). She is reminded of Jesus’s words, “where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” At Trinity, through prayer and action, we are in community, and therefore the Lord is with us, she says.

Martha is married to Larry Graham, who has served on Trinity’s Vestry, and they are the parents of three adult sons, and grandparents of one “terrific little boy.” Brooklyn has been their home for almost 50 years, and Martha was a proud member of the board of the Brooklyn Children’s Museum for 24 years.

Professionally, Martha worked in corporate social responsibility at JPMorgan Chase, designing and managing projects in public education for 23 years. Prior to that, she did a brief stint as director of development for a small organization dedicated to environmental protection and worker safety. Before that, she was at the New York City Commission on Human Rights, combatting employment discrimination. She would be honored to serve on Trinity’s Congregational Council.
Eligibility to Vote: All members of the parish over the age of 18 who have made any financial contribution in the past year are eligible to vote in this year’s election for Congregational Council and Delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Membership: Anyone interested in becoming a member should contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org.

Nominees to the 2019–2022 Congregational Council

Alan Yu
Originally from California, Alan has lived in New York City since late 2013 and is incredibly grateful for the community and fellowship at Trinity Church. At Trinity, he is the Young Adults Group co-chair and the Low-Income Housing & Homelessness Strategic Task Force co-chair. Professionally, he has spent his entire career working for nonprofit organizations, the majority of which have been in affordable housing development.

Scott Evenbeck
Scott Evenbeck has been a member of the parish since 2011. He has represented Trinity at Diocesan Convention and served many years as a Deputy to General Convention, co-chairing the committee on education. He is president of the Church Club and of U.S. Friends of Gladstone’s Library. He is vice chair of the HBCU Committee of Executive Council and a board member for the Association of Episcopal Colleges. He is president of Guttman Community College, earning his baccalaureate degree at Indiana University and his master’s and doctorate at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Chelsea-Lyn Rudder
Chelsea-Lyn is an author, communications professional, journalist, and blogger. Her work has appeared in the Huffington Post, The Grio, and several other local publications. Raised in the Episcopal Church, Chelsea-Lyn began attending Trinity when she moved to New York City for college. She is a member of the Trinity Strategic Task Force, Housing and Homelessness workgroup, and an active volunteer with Trinity Young Adults and Hour Children. She is a frequent lay reader and is proud to have been called to serve for numerous Trinity Christmas Eve and Easter Day services.

Susan Ward
Susan has served Trinity in a variety of capacities. She has been on the Congregation Council for a number of terms and was president of the Council in 2011-2012. Almost since arriving at Trinity, Susan has been active as an obligation bearer and usher. She has sung with the Family Choir and served in a variety of education roles, including chair of the Education Committee. Most recently she was on the Core Committee for Kianga House and taught third to fifth graders in Sunday School. She has served as a Diocesan Delegate three times and is honored to be considered for a fourth term. Susan and her husband, David, have been members of Trinity since 1999.

2019 Nominees Delegates to Diocesan Convention

Alan graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor’s in Urban Studies from the University of California, Berkeley and holds a master’s in City Planning and a Certificate in Real Estate Design & Development from the University of Pennsylvania. Outside of work, Alan serves on the Museum of Modern Art’s Junior Associates Steering Committee, and the Penn LGBT Alumni Association Steering Committee as co-chair of the New York City chapter. Alan was also appointed to two terms on Manhattan Community Board 5 in Midtown, serving on the Parks & Public Spaces and Transportation & Environment Committees from 2016-18.

She is a member of the WNET, Channel Thirteen, Community Advisory Board and is an appointee to the Board of Trustees Education Committee for the local PBS affiliate. She holds a master’s in Global Affairs from New York University and a bachelor’s in Communications and Political Science from Pace University. Chelsea-Lyn is a native of Rochester Hills, Michigan, and is a former Miss Michigan Teen USA. She is the author of Ladylike Lessons: A Guide to Feminine Empowerment, Elegance and Etiquette.

Chelsea-Lyn has a background in government, politics, and public relations; has worked for the New York City Council; and is currently director of communications for the Alzheimer’s Association, New York City Chapter. In 2009, she was named one of “The Most Beautiful People in NYC Politics” by City Hall Newspaper (now known as City and State).

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP).

Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today's Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
