MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About This Service

“Epiphany” is a word of Greek origin and refers to an appearance, a displaying, a showing forth, a making clear or public or obvious. On this day, Christians celebrate the making known of Jesus Christ to the world. Several events in the Gospels record how Jesus was made known publicly, how he was shown or presented to the people: his birth, the coming of the Magi, his Baptism, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana.

On the following Sundays, called Sundays after the Epiphany, our attention will be on Jesus’ public preaching of the kingdom he comes to inaugurate. On the Last Sunday after Epiphany, March 3, 2019, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, we will read the account of the Transfiguration, the climax of the first phase of our Lord’s public ministry.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Arise, shine, for your light has come!

People And the glory of God has dawned upon us.
Opening Hymn

The hymn will be sung twice.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

Reader  A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.” The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!” Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

This little light of mine, I’m gonna let it shine.

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)

The Prayers of the People

Reader  Let us pray that the Light of Christ may be seen in the life of the Church.

Silence

Lord Jesus, you lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do; you made us your Church. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people who love and serve you.

People  Help us to walk in your way.

Reader  You cared for the world around you: the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.

People  Help us to protect the world you gave us.

Reader  You want us to live happy and good lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to make wise decisions for our nation, our state, and our city.

People  Help us to live together in unity.

Reader  You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools, colleges, and universities; and bless everyone, old and young, with good work and fair wages.

People  Help us to do our work well.
Reader You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Hold in your embrace all who are in any need or difficulty, and give your grace to those who care for them and work on their behalf.

People Help us to be instruments of your peace.

Reader When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there with us. Bless our parish family, that we may live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship. Make us eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do, in our neighborhoods and in our world.

People Help us to be your heart and voice, hands and feet.

Celebrant God of grace and glory, you call your Church to shine out in the world. Bless and strengthen us so that we might be people of compassion, courage, and truth, always seeking to bring the good news of Christ to all those we meet and everything we do.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution BCP p. 393/360

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.
The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Hymnal 380, v. 3

[Musical notes]

At the Presentation

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant God of might and mercy, Creator of the universe, your goodness calls forth every praise we can speak. You made all things: the stars that spread across the sky; this abundant earth we call home; waters and weather, creatures great and small.

You created human beings from the first elements. You made us able to think, to move, to love, and to remember. You charged us with the care of your world. But we turned against you and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Again and again, you called us to return. When it was time, you sent your only Son to be born of your servant, Mary; in Jesus, you fulfilled your Law and opened for us the way of freedom and peace.

For all of this, we praise you, together with the heavenly choir of angels, apostles, saints, and the faithful from every generation. With them, and with your children all around the world, we sing of your goodness and glory:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Music: from Mass for a Soulful People, Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948)

Celebrant

And so, Creator, we who have been redeemed by Jesus, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Together, we remember all Jesus has done to redeem us, and we offer you this sacrifice of thanksgiving.

All

We celebrate his death and resurrection,
As we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Almighty God of our ancestors; God and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: open our eyes to see your hand in the world around us.

Help us to come to this table for strength, and not merely for comfort; for renewal and not merely pardon. Through your grace, may the food and drink we receive together make us one body and one spirit in Jesus, focused and inspired to serve the world in his Name.

Accept our prayers and our praise, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship, throughout all generations.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People     Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Christ be manifest to you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be with you always.
All Amen.

Core Values
In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing demolition, removing windows, running conduit, and pouring concrete at the trench location. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Congregational Council Nominations
The Congregational Nominating & Leadership Development Committee is pleased to place on the ballot the persons listed below for election to five positions on the Congregational Council. Candidates for the 2019-2022 Congregational Council are:

Karla Chee-a-tow, Alistair Cree, Prisca Doh, Martha Graham, and Alan Yu.

Furthermore, we are pleased to present the names of nominees to serve as delegates to the 2018 Diocesan Convention. Nominees for delegates to Diocesan Convention: Scott Evenbeck, Chelsea-Lyn Rudder, and Susan Ward.

Voting will take place at all four services on March 3, 2019. The results will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Congregation for the election of Congregational Council members and delegates to the Diocesan Convention that afternoon in St. Paul’s Chapel.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
“My soul finds rest in God alone, my salvation comes from him” (Psalm 62:1). This aligns with my core understanding of spirituality and God’s limitless love. —Greer Phillips
Nominees to the 2019–2022 Congregational Council

Karla Chee-a-tow

Karla’s career has centered around the performing arts. She began working in marketing for the Royal Shakespeare Company, led by artistic director Adrian Noble and principal associate director Michael Attenborough, on world renowned plays including Macbeth, As You Like It, and A Midsummer Night’s Dream.

She came to New York City and worked for the Eliran Murphy Group representing Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, such as Roundabout Theatre’s Cabaret, as well as places of historical reference including the Mashantucket Pequot Museum. She was formerly director of Lifestyle Marketing at V2 Records, and now works with various musicians and artists including the multimedia artist Maya Milenovic Workman, double bass jazz legend Reggie Workman, and producer Nicolas Cabat of Blue Lines Records (Paris, France). More recently she was responsible for musician Jann Klose’s signing to Gallo Records in South Africa, produced the Maya Milenovic play Dos Worlds in association with Trinity Church Wall Street, and devised and implemented the Cultural Outreach campaign for Dreamscape Theatre’s WWI theatrical production In Fields Where They Lay. She is the U.S. representative for recording label and studio Clouds Hill (Hamburg, Germany) and is currently working with Musée de la Castre (Cannes, France) and GCA Entertainment (Taiwan) on international music projects.

Karla has a bachelor’s degree (Hons) in Arts Management & Performing Arts from De Montfort University (UK), a master’s in Music Business from New York University, and a master’s in Law with a specialty in Intellectual Property from Champlain College (USA). She attended the British Record Industry Trust (BRIT) School for Performing Arts and Technology (UK) and is a Windsor Fellowship alumna (UK). She is a member of Trinity Church Wall Street’s Congregational Arts committee and Strategic Task Force, and a volunteer youth leader.

Alistair Cree

Alistair began attending Trinity Church in 2014, after moving to New York from London. Since then, he has become an active member of the congregation, participating regularly in the “Gospel, Times, Journal and You” group and with the Young Adults groups both at Trinity and in the diocese. Alistair has also volunteered with Trinity in various capacities, including Kianga House last year and the annual Interfaith Thanksgiving dinner. Alistair believes in making life at Trinity about spiritual formation—for ourselves, our neighborhood, and through our local, national, and global missions. He is excited for the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council to discover ways to contribute to our shared vision and to seek opportunities to build capacity for holy service.

Outside of life at Trinity, Alistair is a product manager at a financial technology firm, where he works to apply artificial intelligence to make financial markets safer and more efficient. Born in Scotland, Alistair grew up in Portsmouth, UK, and studied physics at Cambridge University. He is an avid reader, and also enjoys cooking and board games.

Prisca Doh

Prisca has been attending Trinity since 2010. She is currently serving as a Morning Prayer officiant, Sunday School teacher, usher, member of the Bible study group, and Trinity Cares. She also joined the mission trips in Burundi and New Orleans, and the exploratory trip to Haiti. She attends the 9:15am and 11:15am services.

Martha Graham

Martha has been attending Trinity for the past eight years and was formally received into the Episcopal Church on Pentecost in 2014.

Her involvement in the parish takes several forms. First and foremost, she treasures participating in worship as a member of the congregation, and, occasionally, as a reader. She’s also a member of New Beginnings, and has gone on retreats and pilgrimages (to Iona and Canterbury, and soon to the Holy Land). She has also worked on mission and service projects (in Haiti in 2012, Navajoland in 2017, and with Hour Children in New York City). She is reminded of Jesus’s words, “where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” At Trinity, through prayer and action, we are in community, and therefore the Lord is with us, she says.

Martha is married to Larry Graham, who has served on Trinity’s Vestry, and they are the parents of three adult sons, and grandparents of one “terrific little boy.” Brooklyn has been their home for almost 50 years, and Martha was a proud member of the board of the Brooklyn Children’s Museum for 24 years.

Professionally, Martha worked in corporate social responsibility at JPMorgan Chase, designing and managing projects in public education for 23 years. Prior to that, she did a brief stint as director of development for a small organization dedicated to environmental protection and worker safety. Before that, she was at the New York City Commission on Human Rights, combatting employment discrimination. She would be honored to serve on Trinity’s Congregational Council.
Eligibility to Vote: All members of the parish over the age of 18 who have made any financial contribution in the past year are eligible to vote in this year's election for Congregational Council and Delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Membership: Anyone interested in becoming a member should contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org.
To submit an item for publication, please email lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org at least 10 days before you would like the announcement to appear.

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today’s Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
