FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

FEBRUARY 10, 2019, 11:15AM

ST. PAUL’S CHAPEL
BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

“Epiphany” is a word of Greek origin and refers to an appearance, a displaying, a showing forth, a making clear or public or obvious. On this day, Christians celebrate the making known of Jesus Christ to the world. Several events in the Gospels record how Jesus was made known publicly, how he was shown or presented to the people: his birth, the coming of the Magi, his Baptism, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana.

On the following Sundays, called Sundays after the Epiphany, our attention will be on Jesus’ public preaching of the kingdom he comes to inaugurate. On the Last Sunday after Epiphany, March 3, 2019, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, we will read the account of the Transfiguration, the climax of the first phase of our Lord’s public ministry.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

Glory to God in the Highest

Hymnal S 278, adapted
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.” The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!” Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.
Verses are chanted on the reciting tone; change pitch on underlined syllables and with each new line of text.

The Psalm

Psalm 138:1-8

I will give thanks to you, O God, with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing your praise.
I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name; because of your love and faithfulness.

REFRAIN

All the rulers of the earth will praise you, O God, when they have heard the words of your mouth.
They will sing of the ways of God, that great is the glory of God.

Although on high, God cares for the lowly and perceives the haughty from afar.
Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.

REFRAIN
The Second Reading

Reader

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray that the light of Christ may be seen in us and in the life of the Church.

You have called us into the family of those who are the children of God. May our love for our sisters and brothers in Christ be strengthened by your grace.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a temple where the Holy Spirit can dwell. Give us all clean hands and pure hearts so that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people, our lives will reflect your holiness.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.
Reader  You have called us to be a light to the world, so that those in darkness may come to you. Give us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. May our lives shine as a witness to the saving grace you have given for all.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People  Make us bearers of your light.

Reader  You have called us to be a city planted on a hill, witnesses to the humanity we share with all people. Guide the leaders of all the nations, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, to make wise decisions for the welfare of people everywhere.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People  Make us bearers of your light.

Reader  You have called us to be members of your body, so that when one suffers, all suffer together. We ask for your comfort and healing power to bring hope to those in distress.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People  Make us bearers of your light.

Reader  We pray for all who have died. Receive them into the bliss of eternal life with you and prepare us to feast at the table in your presence, where we will be united with you for ever.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People  Bring us to your kingdom of light and peace. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon  We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we hide in the darkness of our arrogance and indifference; illuminate the darkness in our hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

People  Lord, have mercy.

Deacon  Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we refuse to see the signs of your presence all around us; open our eyes to your saving love.

Christ, have mercy.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Deacon  Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we are slow to respond to your call to follow and serve you; draw us ever more closely to you and your light.

Lord, have mercy.

People  Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant  Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People      And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.

Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace,
whose mind is stayed on thee.
The darkness is no darkness with thee,
but the night is as clear as the day.
The darkness and the light to thee are both alike.
God is light and with him is no darkness at all.
Oh let my soul live, and it shall praise thee,
for thine is the kingdom, the power,
and the glory, for evermore.

—Isaiah 26:3, Psalm 139:11, 1 John 1:5, Psalm 119:175

Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

EOW p. 63, adapted/CW p. 270

---

Celebrant

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:
Celebrant

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:
All Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed ______, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
\begin{itemize}
  \item hallowed be your Name,
  \item your kingdom come,
  \item your will be done,
    \begin{itemize}
      \item on earth as in heaven.
    \end{itemize}
  \item Give us today our daily bread.
  \item Forgive us our sins,
    \begin{itemize}
      \item as we forgive those
        \begin{itemize}
          \item who sin against us.
        \end{itemize}
    \end{itemize}
  \item Save us from the time of trial,
    \begin{itemize}
      \item and deliver us from evil.
    \end{itemize}
  \item For the kingdom, the power,
    \begin{itemize}
      \item and the glory are yours,
        \begin{itemize}
          \item now and for ever. Amen.
        \end{itemize}
    \end{itemize}
\end{itemize}
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles.

Communion Anthem

Salva nos, Domine

Salva nos, Domine, vigilantes, custodi nos dormientes, ut vigilemus cum Christo, et requiescamus in pace.

Save us, O Lord, waking, and guard us sleeping, that we may watch with Christ, and rest in peace.

—Compline Antiphon, Sarum Breviary 1531
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.
At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole;
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-stick soul.

1. Sometimes I feel discouraged, And think my work's in vain, But
2. If you cannot preach like Peter, If you cannot preach like Paul, You can
3. Don't ever be discouraged For Jesus is your friend, And

1. then the holy spirit Revives my soul again.
2. tell the love of Jesus, And say He died for all.
3. if you lack for knowledge, He'll ne'er refuse to lend.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer
BCP p. 366

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out
to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing
BOS p. 24, adapted

Celebrant
May Christ, the Onlybegotten and Anointed One, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world: And the blessing of God almighty, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit be among you, and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

This event is co-sponsored by EAST and The Global Mission Commission, both ministries of the Diocese of New York.

Core Values

In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall

November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

This 5-part series provides a safe space for teens ages 13-17 to use creative expression and share with their peers as they learn to cope with the loss of loved ones. Facilitated by art therapist Jessica E. Heller, ATR-BC, LCAT, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Sponsored by Pastoral Care. Free. Space is limited; registration is required at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Attendance at all five sessions is strongly encouraged. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing demolition, removing windows, running conduit, and pouring concrete at the trench location. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Congregational Council Nominations
The Congregational Nominating & Leadership Development Committee is pleased to place on the ballot the persons listed below for election to five positions on the Congregational Council. Candidates for the 2019-2022 Congregational Council are:
Karla Chee-a-tow, Alistair Cree, Prisca Doh, Martha Graham, and Alan Yu.

Furthermore, we are pleased to present the names of nominees to serve as delegates to the 2018 Diocesan Convention. Nominees for delegates to Diocesan Convention: Scott Evenbeck, Chelsea-Lyn Rudder, and Susan Ward.

Voting will take place at all four services on March 3, 2019. The results will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Congregation for the election of Congregational Council members and delegates to the Diocesan Convention that afternoon in St. Paul’s Chapel.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
“My soul finds rest in God alone, my salvation comes from him” (Psalm 62:1). This aligns with my core understanding of spirituality and God’s limitless love. —Greer Phillips
Nominees to the 2019–2022 Congregational Council

Karla Chee-a-tow
Karla’s career has centered around the performing arts. She began working in marketing for the Royal Shakespeare Company, led by artistic director Adrian Noble and principal associate director Michael Attenborough, on world renowned plays including Macbeth, As You Like It, and A Midsummer Night’s Dream.

She came to New York City and worked for the Eliran Murphy Group representing Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, such as Roundabout Theatre’s Cabaret, as well as places of historical reference including the Mashantucket Pequot Museum. She was formerly director of Lifestyle Marketing at V2 Records, and now works with various musicians and artists including the multimedia artist Maya Milenovic Workman, double bass jazz legend Reggie Workman, and producer Nicolas Cabat of Blue Lines Records (Paris, France). More recently she was responsible for musician Jann Klose’s signing to Gallo Records in South Africa, produced the Maya Milenovic play Dos Worlds in association with Trinity Church Wall Street, and devised and implemented the Cultural Outreach campaign for Dreamscape Theatre’s WWI theatrical production In Fields Where They Lay. She is the U.S. representative for recording label and studio Clouds Hill (Hamburg, Germany) and is currently working with Musée de la Castre (Cannes, France) and GCA Entertainment (Taiwan) on international music projects.

Karla has a bachelor’s degree (Hons) in Arts Management & Performing Arts from De Montfort University (UK), a master’s in Music Business from New York University, and a master’s in Law with a specialty in Intellectual Property from Champlain College (USA). She attended the British Record Industry Trust (BRIT) School for Performing Arts and Technology (UK) and is a Windsor Fellowship alumna (UK). She is a member of Trinity Church Wall Street’s Congregational Arts committee and Strategic Task Force, and a volunteer youth leader.

Alistair Cree
Alistair began attending Trinity Church in 2014, after moving to New York from London. Since then, he has become an active member of the congregation, participating regularly in the “Gospel, Times, Journal and You” group and with the Young Adults groups both at Trinity and in the diocese. Alistair has also volunteered with Trinity in various capacities, including Kianga House last year and the annual Interfaith Thanksgiving dinner. Alistair believes in making life at Trinity about spiritual formation—for ourselves, our neighborhood, and through our local, national, and global missions. He is excited for the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council to discover ways to contribute to our shared vision and to seek opportunities to build capacity for holy service.

Outside of life at Trinity, Alistair is a product manager at a financial technology firm, where he works to apply artificial intelligence to make financial markets safer and more efficient. Born in Scotland, Alistair grew up in Portsmouth, UK, and studied physics at Cambridge University. He is an avid reader, and also enjoys cooking and board games.

Prisca Doh
Prisca has been attending Trinity since 2010. She is currently serving as a Morning Prayer officiant, Sunday School teacher, usher, member of the Bible study group, and Trinity Cares. She also joined the mission trips in Burundi and New Orleans, and the exploratory trip to Haiti. She attends the 9:15am and 11:15am services.

Martha Graham
Martha has been attending Trinity for the past eight years and was formally received into the Episcopal Church on Pentecost in 2014.

Her involvement in the parish takes several forms. First and foremost, she treasures participating in worship as a member of the congregation, and, occasionally, as a reader. She’s also a member of New Beginnings, and has gone on retreats and pilgrimages (to Iona and Canterbury, and soon to the Holy Land). She has also worked on mission and service projects (in Haiti in 2012, Navajoland in 2017, and with Hour Children in New York City). She is reminded of Jesus’s words, “where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” At Trinity, through prayer and action, we are in community, and therefore the Lord is with us, she says.

Martha is married to Larry Graham, who has served on Trinity’s Vestry, and they are the parents of three adult sons, and grandparents of one “terrific little boy.” Brooklyn has been their home for almost 50 years, and Martha was a proud member of the board of the Brooklyn Children’s Museum for 24 years.

Professionally, Martha worked in corporate social responsibility at JPMorgan Chase, designing and managing projects in public education for 23 years. Prior to that, she did a brief stint as director of development for a small organization dedicated to environmental protection and worker safety. Before that, she was at the New York City Commission on Human Rights, combatting employment discrimination. She would be honored to serve on Trinity’s Congregational Council.
Eligibility to Vote: All members of the parish over the age of 18 who have made any financial contribution in the past year are eligible to vote in this year’s election for Congregational Council and Delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Membership: Anyone interested in becoming a member should contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org.
To submit an item for publication, please email lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org at least 10 days before you would like the announcement to appear.

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), With One Voice (WOV), Ancient and Modern: Hymns and Songs for Refreshing Worship (AMHS), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), Hymns for Today’s Church (HFTC) and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
