You raised up your Son, O God, and seated him at your right hand
as the shepherd and king who seeks what is lost,
binds up what is wounded,
and strengthens what is weak.
Empowered by the Spirit,
grant that we may share with others that which we have received from your hand, to the honor of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The final Sunday of the church year—the last Sunday in the season after Pentecost—is sometimes colloquially known as “Christ the King” Sunday. While not an official feast day according to the calendar of the Episcopal Church, it is mentioned specifically in the Revised Common Lectionary, and is optionally celebrated by some Episcopal parishes in keeping with the Roman Catholic and Lutheran worship traditions. A relatively recent observance, the feast of Christ the King originated in 1925, and has been assigned to the last Sunday before Advent since 1970.

The scriptures appointed for Proper 29 in all three lectionary years extol Jesus Christ’s sovereignty over the kingdoms of heaven and earth, and the Collect of the Day (BCP 236) also echoes Biblical passages that name Jesus as “King of kings and Lord of lords.” Countless composers of liturgical music and authors of hymn texts have also been inspired by the regal theme of the day.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People     And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Refrain

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, the purple-headed mountain, the river running by,

he made their glowing colors, he made their tiny wings,

the sunset, and the morning that brightens up the sky.

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895); Music: Royal Oak, melody from The Dancing Master, 1686; adapt. and harm. Martin Fallas Shaw (1875-1958)

Collect for Purity

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

---

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 236

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Ezekiel.

God, the Master, says: From now on, I myself am the shepherd. I’m going looking for them. As shepherds go after their flocks when they get scattered, I’m going after my sheep. I’ll rescue them from all the places they’ve been scattered to in the storms. I’ll bring them back from foreign peoples, gather them from foreign countries, and bring them back to their home country. I’ll feed them on the mountains of Israel, along the streams, among their own people. I’ll lead them into lush pasture so they can roam the mountain pastures of Israel, graze at leisure, feed in the rich pastures on the mountains of Israel. And I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep. I myself will make sure they get plenty of rest. I’ll go after the lost, I’ll collect the strays, I’ll doctor the injured, I’ll build up the weak ones and oversee the strong ones so they’re not exploited.

Therefore, God, the Master, says: I myself am stepping in and making things right between the plump sheep and the skinny sheep. Because you forced your way with shoulder and rump and butted at all the weaker animals with your horns till you scattered them all over the hills, I’ll come in and save my dear flock, no longer let them be pushed around. I’ll step in and set things right between one sheep and another. I’ll appoint one shepherd over them all: my servant David. He’ll feed them. He’ll be their shepherd. And I, God, will be their God. My servant David will be their prince. I, God, have spoken.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Contor

Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah. Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah!

Zimbabwe Alleluia, Abraham Maraire (1944-1999)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus said, “When he finally arrives, blazing in beauty and all his angels with him, the Son of Man will take his place on his glorious throne. Then all the nations will be arranged before him and he will sort the people out, much as a shepherd sorts out sheep and goats, putting sheep to his right and goats to his left.

“They then will say to those on his right, ‘Enter, you who are blessed by my Father! Take what’s coming to you in this kingdom. It’s been ready for you since the world’s foundation. And here’s why:

‘I was hungry and you fed me,
I was thirsty and you gave me a drink,
I was homeless and you gave me a room,
I was shivering and you gave me clothes,
I was sick and you stopped to visit,
I was in prison and you came to me.’

“Then those ‘sheep’ are going to say, ‘Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry and feed you, thirsty and give you a drink? And when did we ever see you sick or in prison and come to you?’ Then the King will say, ‘I’m telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me.’

“Then he will turn to the ‘goats,’ the ones on his left, and say, ‘Get out, worthless goats! You’re good for nothing but the fires of hell. And why? Because—

‘I was hungry and you gave me no meal,
I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,
I was homeless and you gave me no bed,
I was shivering and you gave me no clothes,
Sick and in prison, and you never visited.’

“Then those ‘goats’ are going to say, ‘Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or homeless or shivering or sick or in prison and didn’t help?’ He will answer them, ‘I’m telling the solemn truth: Whenever you failed to do one of these things to someone who was being overlooked or ignored, that was me—you failed to do it to me.’ Then those ‘goats’ will be herded to their eternal doom, but the ‘sheep’ to their eternal reward.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon  The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

Reader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for bishops and ministers, for all of us gathered here.

Pray for the Church. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among all nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for God's creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it.

Pray for the earth and seas. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn.

Pray for God’s light to shine upon them. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God.

Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant Why is it right to give thanks and praise?
People Listen, and we will hear.
Celebrant Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory. You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish. You give us friends and families, busy streets for young and old, the life of an earthly city fulfilled in your city to come. You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:
We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

Why do we share this bread and wine?

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of me."

So, Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit upon us also, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

Why do we follow Jesus Christ?

Because he is God's saving love in action.

Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

Music: Land of Rest, American folk hymn
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant
Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Words: Irish, ca. 700; versified Mary Elizabeth Byrne (1880-1931); tr. Eleanor H. Hull (1860-1935), alt.
Music: Slane, Irish ballad melody; adapt. The Church Hymnary, 1927; harm. David Evans (1874-1948)

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
The Blessing

Celebrant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Compline by Candlelight
8pm, Trinity Church (Note location change)
During the organ installation at St. Paul’s Chapel in October and November, Compline by Candlelight will be held at Trinity Church.
Trinity Church Rejuvenation

As the Church design team develops the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, scaffolding will be visible inside our 171-year-old Trinity Church through mid-December. This will allow a team to mock up portions of the church to test cleaning techniques and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

For roughly the next 5 weeks, you will see the footings for scaffolding on both the south and north sides in the rear bay of the Church. This scaffolding supports a 20-foot-wide bridge spanning the north and south walls of the nave. The bridge platform is roughly 25 feet in the air and will be used to complete the full paint mock ups.

This week, additional scaffolding will be built on top of the existing scaffolding in the rear bay. A new stairway enclosed in plywood is in place on the north side of the scaffolding. Netting will be placed over the scaffolding to catch any dust or debris the work might produce. The new scaffolding entryway will not block the aisle.

As this work continues, measures are being taken to protect artifacts inside the church. The Renaissance Triptych painting (near the votive candles) has been removed for preservation and safe storage. The baptismal font is well-protected and remains in place.

You may see holes, covered in plastic, that have been bored into the church walls in various places. These allow us to see what type of construction was used in building our beautiful church. At the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern.

Scaffolding installed on the southern exterior of the church provides access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The lower stained glass will be cleaned for the mock up. The yellow tint was added in 1967. Members of the renovation team will lighten six of the panes of glass within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity’s original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

St. Paul’s Chapel: The installation of a renovated organ continues. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings through November.

Writing God: Spiritual Journaling
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one's spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the “true self.” This season we invite you to explore, in community, reflections from the writings of mystics, spiritual directors, activists, and others including Hildegard of Bingen, Julian of Norwich, the Celtic tradition, Thomas Merton, Daniel Berrigan, Joan Chittister, Richard Rohr, and Andrew Harvey. The writings of these spiritual leaders, along with weekly writing prompts, inspire and guide the writer to follow the flow from within and onto the page.
Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

Core Values: What’s Next
Through most of 2017, we explored our six core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. In September we reflected and evaluated what we learned.

For the remainder of the year, we are exploring how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Upcoming sessions:

December 5: Social Justice (Trinity Church, Manning Room)

December 21: Stewardship (Parish Center)

At these sessions, parish and community leaders discuss the role of core values in our public life, exploring questions like: What does the practice of our core values require us to do in our world today? How do core values influence your life actions?

All sessions begin at 6pm.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.

Breaking Bread
1pm, December 10, Trinity Church, Manning Room
You are invited to join us for a community meal as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net or Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

A Freedom Oratorio
7pm, Monday, December 11, St. Paul’s Chapel
Survivors of the criminal justice system recount their journeys from prison to release. Their stories will be accompanied by fragments of Dante’s Divine Comedy, set to music and performed by Frances Pollock. Inspired by Larry White’s prison survival manual, Hope Lives for Lifers. Presented by American Friends Service Committee’s Healing Justice Program with Yale Divinity School’s Institute of Sacred Music, with support from Trinity Church Wall Street. Followed by a discussion facilitated by Ron Jenkins, Visiting Professor of Religion and the Arts, Institute of Sacred Music, Yale Divinity School.
Holiday Warm-Up
5-7pm, December 15, St. Paul’s Chapel
Get into the holiday spirit with the Trinity community! Enjoy festive food, beverages, and music, while wrapping presents and making holiday cards for others. The gifts and cards will go to Brown Bag Lunch clients and residents of Kianga House, a family shelter for women and children in Brooklyn. Participants are also invited to bring warm hats, scarves, and gloves for Brown Bag Lunch clients and gifts for the children of Kianga House. For gift ideas, search for “Kianga House” in the wish list section of amazon.com. Information: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

Handel’s Messiah
December 15, 16, 17; Trinity Church, live streamed
Handel’s Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and the Grammy-nominated Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as peerless interpreters of the work. Although no tickets remain, all three performances will be live streamed. After the final live stream, one performance will be available on-demand. To watch in real time, visit trinitywallstreet.org any time during the performance, and click the orange button that appears in the upper right-hand corner whenever a service or performance is being streamed live. To watch on-demand videos after the live events have passed, visit the music video portal on the website.

Comfort at Christmas
5pm, December 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
A service for those in grief or loss. Not everyone experiences the holidays as a time of joy and cheer. Join us for meditative music, prayer, and a quiet space for comfort and support. Led by the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles and the Rev. Alfred Loua. Refreshments served. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Participate in the Christmas Pageant
9:15am, Family Eucharist, December 24
Children in preschool through fifth grade are invited to participate in the Christmas pageant. The dress rehearsal is on Saturday, December 23, from 10am-12pm at St. Paul’s Chapel. If you plan to participate, please email your child’s name and age to Wendy at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

Puppeteers and Narrators Needed
4pm, December 24
Teens and adults are needed to operate the giant puppets for the Nativity at the Christmas Eve Family Eucharist. Two narrators are also needed. Rehearsal is on Saturday, December 23, from 1-3pm in St. Paul’s Chapel. If you would like to be a puppeteer or narrator, please email Wendy at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Michelle Alexander, Jose Antonio Vargas, Elizabeth Edman, Deirdre Good, Adnan A. Zulfiqar, Rabbi Andrea L. Weiss, Ph.D., the Rev. Winnie Varghese & the Rev. Mark Bozzuti-Jones and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
2018 Stewardship Pledge Appeal Continues
Thank you if you have already made your 2018 stewardship pledge. Pledges to Trinity’s 2018 Pledge Appeal, “The Core Value of Stewardship,” continue to come in strong. Please prayerfully consider renewing and increasing your pledge for next year at whatever amount, or making a first-time pledge of financial support of Trinity’s ministry and programs. Stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes are available near the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. Please place your pledge card and envelope in the offering plates at any Trinity service. You may also pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Willem Brans, Director of Development at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.
Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
Earlier this year, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This fall and winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities including some renovation work in January 2018, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Justice for Sergio
Sergio Reyes, a senior at Leadership and Public Service High School, one of Trinity’s neighbors, was shot and killed by police after allegedly holding up a bodega with a fake gun in February 2017. Sergio’s classmates, members of the Trinity’s new Advocacy Apprentice program, created a three-part podcast to honor their friend and explore the narratives and social forces surrounding the events that led to his death. Primarily designed for high school students in local public schools, Advocacy Apprentices work on projects to address current justice issues in New York City through storytelling, visual art, community engagement, and service projects. Hear the podcasts at trinitywallstreet.org/sergio.

Giving Tree
through December 1, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts for the children and youth we work with through our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House, a local family shelter), New Orleans, Panama, Haiti, and Burundi. The Giving Tree makes giving easy: Simply stop by the tree, take a tag describing a specific gift, and once you’ve purchased that gift, bring it back to the tree by December 1. (Between December 1 and December 10, tags listing gifts for the mothers of Kianga House will be available on the tree. The gifts for Kianga House mothers should be returned by December 10.) Gifts may be mailed to Giving Tree/Trinity Church Wall Street, 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271. If you prefer not to shop, choose a tag that requests a monetary donation and send a check or money order, payable to Trinity Church with “Giving Tree” in the memo line, to the address above. You may also give through Trinity’s online giving site, trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Stephanie Burgos at sburgos@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0846.

Congregational Sock Drive
December 1 through 31
Drop off baskets at Trinity and St. Paul’s Chapel
The Collections committee and Brown Bag Lunch are partnering to address a need in our ministry: socks! Bring in adult socks of any size (for men or women) any color, now throughout the month of December. Socks are a needed addition to our outreach offerings during these cold winter months. Speak to Lorna Bruce or another committee member for more information. Committee member names are listed in the back of the bulletin.

Book your Holiday Retreat Now
Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for Christmas and Advent. The retreats are filling up quickly so make your plans soon. The Advent retreat focuses on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. The Sisters are In 10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Trinity Preschool Financial Aid
Trinity Preschool, for children 3 months through 5 years of age, is committed to serving children and families from a wide range of socioeconomic backgrounds. The school’s need-based financial aid program supports this goal. Financial aid awards are given based on need to eligible families whose child/children attend five days a week. Applications for the 2018-2019 school year are due January 15, 2018. Learn more at trinitypreschoolnyc.org.

Congregational Voice
“If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9 NLT). This passage was the verse from “Our Daily Bread.” It told the story of a woman who accepted Christ late in life when she was not even looking for Him and I was reminded of the days when I would “Walk For Christ” with my church on Saturday mornings sharing this simple message of salvation. Some people are still lost and don’t know what it takes to let go and let God. —Adrienne Gardner

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from The Message (MSG) by Eugene Peterson. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Voices Found (VF), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship (CW), and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
