God of the prophets and apostles, you greeted old Abraham and Sarah with news of wonder and life.
Send us into the world to preach good news, as Jesus did,
heal the sick, resist evil,
and bring the outcast home. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.”

—Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Season after Pentecost is the longest season of the Episcopal Church year. Its length is variable depending on the date of Easter, and may include up to twenty-eight Sundays. In 2017, there will be twenty-five, with the season concluding just after Thanksgiving Day. Trinity Sunday, which we celebrated last week, is always the first Sunday after Pentecost; many churches bookend the season by commemorating the reign of Christ the King on the last Sunday after Pentecost.

During this season, the Revised Common Lectionary offers two possible courses, called tracks, for the Old Testament scripture readings. At Trinity Church, we will follow the first track, which begins in Genesis and continues progressively through the chapters of that book and onward to Exodus, venturing briefly into Deuteronomy before All Saints’ Day in November.

Hymn in Procession

Hymn in Procession

1 O for a thousand tongues to sing my dear Redeemer’s praise,
2 My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim
3 Jesus! the Name that charms our fears and bids our sorrows cease;

1 the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace.
2 and spread through all the earth abroad the honors of thy Name.
3 'tis music in the sinner’s ears, 'tis life and health and peace.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788), alt.; Music: Azmon, Carl Gotthilf Gläser (1784-1829); adapt. and arr. Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

Collect for Purity

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

The Collect of the Day

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading
Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-7
GWMV p. 142, adapted

Reader
A Reading from the book of Genesis.

God appeared to Abraham in the heat of the day as he was sitting near his tent. Abraham looked up and saw three men coming toward him. He got up to meet them, saying,
"Please, stay here a little while and rest. Let me bring you water to wash your feet, and offer you some good food." So they said, "Thank you. That would be very nice." Abraham ran into the tent and asked Sarah to make bread, and his servant to prepare an excellent meal. Then he stood by them in the shade of the trees while they ate.

They asked, "Where is your wife, Sarah?" Abraham said, "She's there in the tent." One replied, "I'll be back this way this time next year, and she'll have a son in her arms." Sarah was listening to this from the tent. She and Abraham were way too old to have children. So when she heard this, she laughed to herself, thinking, "Really? Now that I'm old and my husband is even older, I'm going to have a baby?"

God said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh at what I said? Is anything too difficult for the Lord? I tell you, by the time I come back this way, she will have had a son."

Sarah said, "I didn't laugh."

The man said, "Oh yes, you did."

And the next year, it was just as God said—He did for Sarah exactly what he promised. She bore a son, and she and Abraham named him Isaac. And Sarah said, "God has brought laughter for me; and everyone who hears will laugh with me."

The Word of the Lord.

People
Thanks be to God.

MHSO 20

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words and Music: Fintal O’Carroll (1922-1981) and Christopher Walker (b. 1947)
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Jesus went all over the place proclaiming God's good news and curing sick people. When he saw the crowds of people, his heart went out to them, because they were anxious and helpless, like sheep who have no shepherd to guide them. "So much work to do, so few workers. Let's ask God for more helpers."

Jesus sent out his twelve disciples with the power to cure sick people and cast out demons. Here are the names of the twelve apostles: Simon Peter and his brother Andrew; James and John, sons of Zebedee; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James and Thaddaeus; Simon, and Judas, the one who betrayed him.

Jesus sent them out with these instructions: "First, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, tell people the good news about the kingdom of heaven being near. Cure sick people. Raise dead people. Make the lepers whole again. Cast out demons. Give much, as you have been given much."

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
The Rev. Elizabeth Blunt
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for our sin, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:
earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

Confession and Absolution

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, loving and mighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

And so we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with everyone in heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Celebrant Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; when we had wandered far from you and fallen into sin, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, and to reconcile us to you through his perfect sacrifice.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate your loving mercy, O God, with praise and thanksgiving. Remembering how Jesus died, and rose again, and ascended to you in heaven, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the holy food and drink of new and unending life in your Son. Sanctify us also, that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and be strengthened to serve you together in peace. At the last day, bring us with all your saints into the never-ending joy of your kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Hymnal 508

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us be with you now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Mission and Vision Integration Team invite staff and parishioners to share their experiences involving compassion and discuss how the core value of compassion can transform our parish. Information: Keisha Joseph at 212.602.0755.

Core Values: Compassion
“Compassion constitutes a radical form of criticism, for it announces that the hurt is to be taken seriously, that the hurt is not to be accepted as normal and natural but is an abnormal and unacceptable condition for humanness.” —Walter Brueggemann

In June, we will explore the core value of compassion. What does compassion mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

- Compassion
  Thursday, June 22, 6:30-8:15pm,
  Trinity Church, Manning Room

- Social Justice
  Tuesday, July 18, 6:30-8:15pm,

12:45pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Parishioners, staff, and members of the Trinity and West Cornwall communities are invited to participate in several upcoming community conversations, or charettes, where you'll receive a preview of renovations under way and talk to directors Heidi and Joe Rose and the Rev. Daniel Simons about the progress that has been made as the center moves closer to reopening. You'll also have a chance to share ideas and feedback about programming at the center. Charettes are free and open to all; refreshments provided. RSVPs are not required. Information: trinityretreatcenter.org.

Breaking Bread: Fellowship
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
We invite you to join us for a community meal as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations. This month’s focus will be how we practice fellowship. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net; Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.
COMING SOON

Mission & Service Trips
Next Trip: New York City, July 14-Aug. 11 (Fridays)
Commissioning: Sunday, July 9
Want to make a difference? Want to participate in an activity that can create true and lasting change? Consider applying for an upcoming trip to visit Trinity's mission partners. Members of the Trinity community and friends engage in service to build partnerships and relationships through hands-on work. A trip to Panama originally planned for earlier in the year has been rescheduled to September 20–25. Deadline for application is June 30. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.

Trinity Retreat Center Preview Picnic
12-4pm, July 29, West Cornwall, CT
Visit the retreat center and get a sneak peek of renovations under way and talk to directors Heidi and Joe Rose and the Rev. Daniel Simons about the progress that has been made at the center as it moves closer to reopening. Tour the center’s renovation projects and meet the new farm animals. Trinity will provide transportation, a hearty lunch, and family-friendly activities. Free and open to all. RSVP by July 15 at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
There are still several places open for the January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations, and there is a registration discount of $50 before July 15th. After that date participation will be on an as-available basis. Contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to reserve your place.

BULLETIN BOARD

Volunteers needed: CSA
June-October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity is buying shares in two local Community Supported Agriculture concerns to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Parish Choir Forming
Trinity is organizing a Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that will sing for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 3pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Auditions are available by appointment. The choir meets seasonally; the next session will run September 24–November 19. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the Trinity Choir of Men and Boys, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Josh Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Trinity Charter Society
On May 30, five new members were inducted into The Trinity Charter Society: Gabriel Bonadie, the Rev. Canon James G. Callaway, Dr. Mary Chilton Callaway, Alfred DiRaffaele, and Shirley Quashie. Society members have declared their support of Trinity’s future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their estate plans. If you have included Trinity in your will or in another type of estate planning vehicle, or if you would like more information about The Trinity Charter Society, please contact the Fund Development office: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org; 212.602.9692.

The Sisters Are In
Weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!” The sisters are in most weekday mornings or afternoons before or after the 12:05pm service.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.
AIDS Walk NY
Trinity's AIDS Walk NY team had a fantastic time walking on May 21. If you missed the walk, there's still time to donate. To give, call 212.807.WALK and ask that your donation be credited to Trinity's team number 9797.

“But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength” (2 Timothy 4:17). I just saw this verse online and liked it. It seemed like a great verse for my last final week in college. I am now a college graduate!! —Tracey Cadogan

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

To submit an item for publication, please email lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org at least 10 days before you'd like the announcement to appear.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God's Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS) and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
