The Third Sunday in Lent

March 7, 2021, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Lent

The season of Lent—from an Old English word meaning “spring”—spans 40 days: from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, excluding Sundays. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten disciplines: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Lenten liturgy is characterized by solemnity and simplicity. The Gloria and the word Alleluia are omitted and will not return until the Great Vigil of Easter. At Trinity Church, a “Lenten array” of red, black, and rough linen fabric characterizes the vestments during this season.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Choral Introit

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

My eyes are forever turned towards the Lord, for he shall release my feet from the snare; look upon me and have mercy on me, for I am abandoned and destitute. Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you; let me not be put to shame. Glory to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

—Psalm 25:15–16, 1–2
Acclamation

Celebrant  Blessed be the God of our salvation:
People  Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

Summary of the Law  Mark 12:29–31  BCP p. 351

Celebrant  Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.”

Confession and Absolution  EOW p. 56/BCP p. 352

Celebrant  Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

Kyrie  Hymnal S 84, adapted

Music: Plainsong, Mode 1; Mass 11, “Orbis factor”; arr. David Hurd (b. 1950)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 20:1–17 Read by Carmelita Blake

Reader A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

God spoke all these words to Moses on Mount Sinai:

I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 19:1–9, 14

Led by the choir.

ANTIPHON

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight.

CHANT

All

1 The heavens declare the glory of God,* and the firmament shows his handiwork.

2 One day tells its tale to another,*
and one night imparts knowledge to another.

3 Although they have no words or language,*
and their voices are not heard,

4 Their sound has gone out into all lands,*
and their message to the ends of the world.

5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun;*
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again;*
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul;*
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart;*
the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;*
the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,*
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

ANTIPHON

Music: from The Plainsong Psalter; Tone VII.3
A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.”

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon  The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father’s house a marketplace!” His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.” The Jews then said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?” Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews then said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?” But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles
Priest and Director for Pastoral Care and Community
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  We believe in one God,
All  the Father, the Almighty,
      maker of heaven and earth,
      of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
  he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
  he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
  and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
  he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
  in accordance with the Scriptures;
  he ascended into heaven
  and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
  He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
  and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
  and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Readers

Let us bring to God our prayers of intercession through Christ, who gave himself for the life of the world.

For grace to seek out those habits of sin by which we bring ourselves and our neighbors to harm, and for inspiration to maintain life-giving disciplines in this season of penitence,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For Christian people, that despite differences they may cultivate a rich union in Christ: especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and all those who lead us forward and draw us together,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For those who make laws, interpret them, and administer them—especially Joseph our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—that they may contribute to a common life ordered in justice and equity,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For those who have the courage to work openly for reconciliation and peace; and for this parish, as we seek to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For all those who are victims of senseless hatred and violence, and especially for our Asian and Asian American neighbors in this city and throughout our nation; that they may be accompanied and protected, and that the hearts of all who seek to do them harm may be turned,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For those in the shadow and pain of isolation, that they might find support and encouragement,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Readers

For those who, weighed down with hardship, failure, sickness, or sorrow, feel that God is far from them; especially for the people and clergy of the Archdiocese of Cape Town, and for all our neighbors awaiting relief and access to vaccines in this time of pandemic,

Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People

Lord, hear our prayer.
That we, with all those who have walked before us, may find mercy in the day of Christ,
Let us pray to the Lord of mercy.
Lord, hear our prayer.
God of compassion and mercy: once we were far off, but you have brought us near. Hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you in Christ Jesus our Savior.
Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.
The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Salve Regina

Salve Regina, mater misericordiae, vita, dulcedo et spes nostra, salve, ad te clamamus, exsules filii evae,
ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes
in hac lacrimarum valle.
Eia ergo, advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte.
Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exilium ostende,
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis virgo Maria.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement: O loving: sweet Virgin Mary.
—Marian anthem

Censing of the Altar

Please stand as you are able.

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.
Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
The Great Thanksgiving

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Music: Plainsong; Mass 18; adapt. Mason Martens (1933-1991)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant All glory be to you, O Lord our God, for you created heaven and earth, and made us in your own image; and, of your tender mercy, gave your only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.
For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.”

Therefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we your people do celebrate and make, with these your holy gifts which we now offer to you, the memorial your Son commanded us to make;

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we most humbly beseech you, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with your Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire your fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present to you, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech you, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with your grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all your whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
        on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people
at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

So fahr ich hin

Heinrich Schütz (1585-1672)

So fahr ich hin zu Jesu Christ,
I stretch out my arm,
Thus I journey to Jesus Christ;
Mein Arm tu ich ausstrecken,
So I fall asleep and rest gently,
I stretch out my arm,
No one can awaken me,
So schlaf ich ein und ruhe fein,
For Jesus Christ, God’s Son
Kein Mensch kann mich aufwecken,
To lead me to eternal life,
Denn Jesus Christus, gottes Sohn,
Der wird die Himmelstür auftun,
Mich führen zum ewigen Leben.
—Nikolaus Herman (1500-1561)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

Look mercifully on this your family, Almighty God, that by your great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Yoga Off the Mat: The Practice of Daily Living
12–1pm, Online
Yoga is more than the physical postures we experience in a class or through our practice on the mat. It is also the awareness of our body, mind, and spirit in the movements and moments of daily living. Join us for this series of eight classes as we explore the ancient meaning and practice of yoga “off the mat.” Each session will include meditation, reflections on the teachings/philosophy of yoga, breath work, brief standing, sitting, and walking practices, and time and space for silence and sharing. Participants will need a straight back chair for sitting postures. In order to participate in these sessions you will be asked to sign a liability waiver which will be sent to you after you register. These interactive workshops are led by Julia Kristeller, Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

The Trinity Cares in Action Racial Justice and Education group meets for reflection, sharing, and to explore ways to make a positive impact on racial injustice in the area of child and adult education. We will review resources, plan projects, and search for ways to support existing work. All are welcome. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/trinitycaresinaction.

Tuesday, March 9
LGBTQ+ Concerns Group Meeting
6:30pm, Online
Trinity’s LGBTQ+ Concerns Group meets monthly and offers a supportive and inclusive environment to discuss the issues, concerns, and roles of LGBTQ+ people in a faith-based community. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. This month we’ll focus on the core value of inclusiveness and discuss LGBTQ+ allies. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/concerns.

Living with Loss: Support in Grief
6:30pm, Online
Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This six-week series will facilitate reflection and expression to help us cope with loss. Facilitated by Julia Kristeller from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/loss.

Thursday, March 11
Speaker Series with Nikole Hannah-Jones
6–7:30pm, Online
Nikole Hannah-Jones is the Pulitzer Prize-winning creator of The 1619 Project, which features a series of essays and images on the relationship between slavery and everything from social infrastructure to the arts. In a conversation moderated by the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Hannah-Jones will discuss racial inequity in America, punctuated by the current political firestorm that threatens funding cuts to schools that use The 1619 Project as curriculum. Join us for this critical conversation about our nation’s past and future. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

Trinity Cares: Transformative Truth Telling
6:30pm, Online
The Trinity Cares in Action Transformative Truth Telling affinity group seeks to learn the history of Trinity Church and share it in a manner that is enlightening, inclusive, and compassionate, leading participants to a transformative experience that connects us to the past, roots us in the present, and steers us toward the future. All are welcome. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/trinitycaresinaction.

COMING SOON
Speaker Series with Professor Frank Snowden
Thursday, March 18, 6pm, Online
Join the Rev. Phillip A. Jackson in conversation with Professor Frank Snowden of Yale University, author of Epidemics and Society: From Black Death to the Present. This discussion will focus on a historical perspective on epidemic diseases and how the ongoing coronavirus pandemic was an entirely predictable byproduct of our global society—as well as the harbinger of things to come. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

Trinity Movement Choir: The Doors
Sunday, March 21, 8pm, Online
Join Trinity Movement Choir for an interactive online screening of The Doors and examine the infinite nature of love, fear, birth, and death as we move through life from chaos to centered balance. The Doors features a new original score by legendary jazz bassist and composer Reggie Workman, recipient of the 2020 National Endowment for the Arts Jazz Masters Fellowship Award, and jazz pianist A Bu, winner of the 2015 Montreux Jazz Solo Piano Competition. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/thedoors.

Clay Sculpture Workshop
Saturdays, April 10–May 1, 10–11:30am, Online
Get comfortable working with clay and create your own original work in a supportive environment—no kiln required! Join teaching artist Max Cohen for a four-session workshop on working in three-dimensional media and learn techniques for both realist and abstract sculpting with air-dry clay. Sign off with a deeper understanding of your own creativity and a renewed appreciation of sculpture. Sessions include live improvised music by cellist Jacob Cohen. Open to all ages and skill levels; space is limited. Register by March 29 at trinitywallstreet.org/clayworkshop.

Discovery: Evicted in the American City
Sundays, April 11–May 16, 10am, Online
Join the Discovery community as we explore the complex causes and impact of eviction on our neighbors and consider what it means for our Christian vocation. Our learning and reflection will center on Matthew Desmond’s Pulitzer Prize-winning book, Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City, with the author joining us on April 25. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/evicted. To receive a free copy of the book, register by Friday, March 12.

BULLETIN BOARD
Holy Week and Easter at Home: A Gift for You
Trinity Church Wall Street would like to send you a gift to accompany you as you walk through Holy Week in anticipation of Easter Day. There will be activities for the whole family, holiday aromas, and a treat or two. Deadline is Sunday, March 14. To receive a packet (one per household), visit trinitywallstreet.org/eastergift.

Worship Reminders Available Via Text
Never miss another Sunday or weekday service—Trinity is offering simple text alerts to remind you of upcoming services. Simply text “11:15AM” to 28259 to receive a weekly reminder and link to Trinity’s 11:15am Holy Eucharist. Text “12:05PM” to 28259 to receive a reminder each weekday before the 12:05pm Holy Eucharist. Questions? Email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Online At-Home Retreats
Trinity Retreat Center is a place of spiritual growth for all of God’s people, dedicated to forming community, fostering wellness, and celebrating creation.

“Love is the Meaning” Weekend Lenten Retreat | Led by Robert Owens Scott; March 13 | Set the tone for Lent by focusing on the writings of Julian of Norwich, an ascetic from the Middle Ages who wrote Revelations of Divine Love, the earliest surviving book in English written by a woman.

Inclusiveness Retreat | Led by the Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Boffuzzi-Jones; March 26–28 | Using Scripture and poetry, we will seek to discover how God is calling us to celebrate diversity, to live lives of inclusiveness, and to listen deeply to the voices of wisdom and disruption drawing us into God during the season of Lent.

Monthly Weekend Retreats | March–September | Pray, reflect, make space for grace, and listen to the voice of God. Each retreat’s guide will encourage us to open our hearts to God through prayer.

2021–2022 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 6, 2021, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

The Parish Nominating Committee is in the process of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed for the 2021 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

• Any eligible member of the congregation may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by January 17, 2021.

• All members of the parish who are 18 years old or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2020–April 2021) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election.*

• The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for the 2021-2022 slate. The final slate of candidates will be identified by March 14, 2021.

• A mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners on or before March 22, 2021. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org.

Registration can also be completed on April 6, 2021, upon application to the Priest-in-charge upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

• Vestry Election Day is April 6, 2021. Mail ballots must be received before 4pm on Tuesday, April 6. The results will be announced on Trinity’s website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* Due to the suspension of in-person worship since March 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Vestry has waived the eligibility requirement of taking Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2020–April 2021) for this election only.

Any questions regarding the election, discernment process, or voter eligibility can be directed to Mike Hogan, Director of Administration and Corporate Secretary, at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6261.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

CANDLELIGHT COMPLINE
from Trinity Retreat Center
Monday–Friday at 8pm

During this period of social distancing, we hope you’ll join us from home for live-streamed Candlelight Compline and online gatherings of contemplation on Trinity Retreat Center’s Facebook page.

Led by the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones and the retreat center staff. This service to end the day will take place in our stone chapel and other sacred spaces. In the midst of our anxiety, fear, sickness, and turmoil, we invite you to enter the darkness of each night with hope, peace, solidarity, unity, and contemplation on God’s everlasting love. We will be using the Book of Common Prayer’s “An Order for Compline.”
